

Welcome Message from the President & CEO, Brian G. Lawrence

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the many choices that Fellowship Senior Living offers. Because we see life as a continuous journey of growth and development, our focus is to improve the quality of life and health for those we serve on our campus or in your home. By browsing our web site, I trust you will get a glimpse of what those we serve know so well - Fellowship Senior Living is an exceptional family that provides many choices to fit your lifestyle!

At Fellowship Senior Living, we go to great lengths to create an environment that provides a broad range of services and programs to enhance individual health and well-being. Every day our team provides incomparable service and care with great passion and professional commitment. Our Christ centered mission compels us to affirm the dignity of each person and to compassionately pursue excellence with integrity in all that we do.

When you enter Fellowship Village or when we serve you in your home, you will notice something familiar, something you may not have expected. It is a feeling of “family”. As a family, we take care of each other. Our residents, patients, members, and clients work together with our team members to create a vibrant relationship based on respect, concern for each other, and friendship.

As you explore our web site, you will learn more about our trusted choices to fit your lifestyle, our mission and our extensive services and programs.

However, to truly experience what we have to offer, please contact us.

Warmest regards,

Brian G. Lawrence
